

AFT | ASSOCIATION FOR FINANCIAL TECHNOLOGY

THE JAMES E. STONER, ALLAN W. BALCH, JAMES BANNISTER, & MIKE BAKER SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

The Association for Financial Technology has been awarding college, university, business and technical school scholarships to deserving employees and their sons, daughters, stepchildren, spouses, grandchildren and wards since 1985. The awards are named for James E. Stoner, one of the organization's founders, Allan W. Balch, a two-time President of AFT, James Bannister, former AFT Executive Director, and Mike Baker, late AFT Member. As many as five scholarships valued at $2,500 each are awarded annually based upon the amount in the Scholarship Fund.
