

THE JAMES E. STONER, ALLAN W. BALCH, & JAMES BANNISTER SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

The Association for Financial Technology has been awarding college, university, business and technical school scholarships to deserving employees and their sons, daughters, stepchildren, spouses, grandchildren and wards since 1985. The awards are named for James E. Stoner, one of the organization's founders, Allan W. Balch, a two-time President of AFT, and James Bannister, former AFT Executive Director. As many as five scholarships valued at $2,500 each are awarded annually based upon the amount in the Scholarship Fund.

2019 Scholarship Award Recipients

34 YEARS
PROGRAM
ESTABLISHED
IN 1985

47

TOTAL
SCHOLARSHIP
RECIPIENTS

$121,432
TOTAL
AFT FUNDS AWARDED

Compliance
Systems

Julia Jesko
Grand Valley State University

Geezeo

Marley Belanger
Suffolk University

FIS

Madeline Hlobik
*University of California -
Los Angeles*

Jack Henry
& Associates

Malia Morgan
Harvey Mudd College

Fiserv

Srinija Cherivirala
University of California - Berkeley

PART OF THE AFT MISSION IS TO ENSURE THAT IT GIVES BACK TO ITS MEMBERS.

The AFT scholarship program is funded through donations and 10% of any profits the association makes each year.